What's Right with Dancing

Keynote Speaker: Eric Henerlau

Plan now to hear this positive message regarding your favorite pastime—dancing!

Eric Henerlau has been teaching and calling modern square dancing since 1980. He has taught thousands of people to square dance through classes and individual party dance events. Eric calls at all levels, from beginner to C-2, and cues Phase III square dance rounds.

Traveling throughout North America, Europe, and Japan, Eric calls for open dances, festivals, and private parties. He regularly calls in California for the Tam Twirlers in San Rafael and the Outlaws in San Jose.

Eric will present “What’s Right with Dancing” as his keynote address at the 66th National Square Dance Convention®. Don’t miss it!

Let's Talk About It... and Get Excited!

Building on the presentation by our keynote speaker, leaders from groups around the country will talk about what’s right in their areas. Join moderator Louis Friedlander and his lively participants ‘round the table as they share the enthusiasm from their activities. Come away with new ideas for promoting square dancing in your part of the world.
