

Go with the Flow

Learn, Dance & Grow

Looking for variety in your dance life? Check out the clinics in Cincinnati. Try Progressive Squares with Eddie Powell, Tandem Squares with Gene Record, and Hexagon Squares with Andy Allemao and Wayne Pelmear. If you wish to improve your dance styling, Ed Foote will be doing a clinic on smooth square dancing for mainstream and plus levels. Mike Sumpter will host a Blast from the Past, reintroducing square dance calls from years gone by. Jerry Story will lead a clinic demonstrating the concept of Fifty Calls. Try out Scottish Country Dancing. Let Ed Laudenschlager teach you how to work with handicapable dancers.

For younger dancers, the Youth room will have seven clinics led by John Ramsey (daily), Amanda Skidmore, Jimmy Robison, Travis Cook, Scott and Shawn Brown.

Line Dancing will have two clinics: Easy Line Dancing and Couple Partner Dancing led by Jeff & Diane Hissong and Doug & Donna Riley.

Are you into Contra? Check out Squares of Other Cultures, with Lissa Bengtson. Currently not a contra dancer? Step out on the floor with Judy Weger for Introduction to Contra Dancing.

New to round dancing? Beginner clinics for dancers who have never round danced will be led by Phyllis and Doug Burdette teaching a two step, Tim Eum presenting a waltz, and Barbara Connelly presenting a cha cha.

Showcase of Rounds is where the presenters dance the programs they will teach from 10:00 am to noon each day, followed by three clinics. Cuers and presenters will include Kristine Nelson-Phase III Waltz and a high level Waltz or Latin dance, Jeanne and Warren Shane-Phase II/III Two Step, Walter Brewer-Phase III/IV Foxtrot, Debbie and Paul Taylor-Phase III/IV cuers choice, Rey and Sherry Garza-Phase IV Tango, Joe and Pat Hilton-Phase IV/V cuers choice, Rick Linden-Phase V Tango or Quickstep, Peg and John Kincaid-high level Merengue.

Take advantage of the learning opportunities and fun times to be had in our clinics and workshops next June in Cincinnati. Plan now to join us!
